THE ENGLISH MISSION.

Hon. Robert Todd Lincoln Appointed Minister to Great Britain.

His Business Interests may Prevent His Accepting the Office.

Murat Halstead of Cincinnati Nominated for the German Mission.

Hon. Allen Thorndyke Rice to Represent us at St. Petersburg.

Nominations

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate this morning:

Robert T. Lincoln, of Illinois, for minister to Great Britain.

Murat Halstead, of Ohio, for minister to Germany.

Allen Thorndyke Rice, of New York, for minister to Russia.

Patrick Egan, of Nebraska, for minister to Chili.

Thomas Ryan, of Kansas, for minister to Mexico.

John Hicks, of Wisconsin, for minister to Peru.

George B. Loring, of Massachusetts, for minister to Portugal.

The Cabinet

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Robert Todd Lincoln, who was to day nominated minister to England, is 45 years of age and is a son of Abraham Lincoln. He graduated from Harvard college, served through Grant's Virginia campaign as captain, practiced law in Chicago and served as aide-de-camp under Phil Sheridan, resuming in that post under President Arthur. On his retirement in 1885 he resumed the practice of law in Chicago.

Allen Thorndyke Rice, to day nominated for minister to Russia, was born in Massachusetts. He is a graduate of Oxford university, England, and since 1878 has been editor and proprietor of the North American Review. He has contributed largely to literature while taking an active part in politics.

George Bailey Loring of Massachusetts, is well known because of his connection with the department of agriculture, of which he was commissioner from 1881 to 1885. He is 72 years of age and is a Harvard graduate. Loring has been long known in public life, beginning as a volunteer in the marine hospital service in 1843 and at other times, being postmaster, centennial commissioner and congressman.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Among the nominations confirmed by the senate this afternoon were the following:

Francis E. Warren, governor of Wyoming territory.

Benjamin F. White, governor of Montana.

Robert V. Bell, assistant commissioner of Indian affairs, and a number of postmasters.

Watterson

LOUISVILLE, March 27.—Regarding President Harrison's diplomatic appointments Mr. Watterson will say in tomorrow's Courier-Journal: There is no denying that the administration is getting in some very minute political and party work in its appointments to office. With the exception of Wanamaker and Tauber, Mr. Harrison, whilst selecting active and orthodox republicans of the most pronounced description, has shocked no popular or moral sensibility, but has rather impressed the country with the idea that he is a clear-headed well-intentioned man, working for the best with great intelligence, within his own party lines. The batch of diplomatic nominations sent to the senate yesterday completes the list of foreign places of importance to be filled, and though containing no surprises, it will, on the whole give pretty general satisfaction.

May Not Accept

CHICAGO, March 27.—Hon. Robert T. Lincoln when informed by a reporter this afternoon that he had been nominated by the president for minister to England, and asked if he would accept, said: "I shall consider the matter and shall consider business interests carefully, but what the interests are I don't care to make public."

Senate

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The senate resolution heretofore offered by Mitchell authorizing the committee on mines and mining to continue the inquiry into the causes of delay in considering the bill in the mineral division of the general land office, was taken up and referred to the committee on mines and mining.

The resolutions heretofore offered by Butler declaring that the tenure of the president pro tem does not expire at the meeting of congress after the recess, but is held at the pleasure of the senate, were taken up and George made a constitutional argument in opposition to them. The resolutions were referred, and the senate went into secret session and at 3.30 o'clock adjourned.

The C. K. & N. Case

CHICAGO, March 27.—Chairman Rich of the Colorado association gave notice some time ago that the lines in his association would reduce the western excursion rates from $30 to $25 beginning April 1. The C. K. & N. has given notice that it will not do so before May 1, if it does then. The Missouri River roads had all issued reduced tariff schedules in accordance with Chairman Rich's notification but have been forced to recall them by telegraph.

State Nominations.

DENVER, March 27.—The governor sent the following nominations to the senate today:

Denver board of public works, W. C. Lothrop, D. C. Dodge and F. B. Crocker.

Judges of the district court of Arapahoe county, F. B. Stuart and Oliver H. Tiddel.

New and Wolfley

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The nominations of Lewis Wolfley to be governor of Arizona and John C. New to be consul general to London were reported favorably from the committee to day but under individual objection they went over until the next executive session when they will be confirmed.

Hell's New Office

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Secretary Windom has appointed Mr. C. M. Hall, of Minnesota, chief of the division of appointments in the treasury department, vice Mr. Jas. Kennedy, resigned, to take effect on the 1st of April.

Pretended Priest

TORONTO, March 27.—A wonderful whisper was put in circulation yesterday to the effect that a priest and nuns had arrived in the city with a large quantity of stolen goods and a forged check was presented here yesterday. It is believed that he is a man who had escaped jail in Buffalo and had escaped from the United States for work of this sort. The truck which had been arrested was an attempt to get $1,200 worth of diamonds for a present to the pope from the people of Toronto.

Visitors at the White House

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The usual crowd congregated at the White house to-day and kept the president busy the entire morning. Among the callers were Governor Beaver of Pennsylvania, Senators Farwell and Ingalls, ex-Speaker Carlisle, Senator Allison, Representatives Turner, Wallace, Harmer, Lafollette, Senator Dawes and Senator McMillan with Minister Palmer and General John C. New.

Harvey Is Insane

TORONTO, March 27.—When W. H. Harvey was placed in the dock this morning to answer to the charge of having murdered his wife and two daughters at Guelph yesterday, his appearance was that of a man completely broken down, mentally and physically. From his looks there is no doubt that the man is insane. After a formal entry of the charge Harvey was sent in custody of a constable to Guelph.

Miller's Policy.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Attorney General Miller said to day in answer to an inquiry that he had not outlined any general plan of policy in regard to the marshals and district attorneys appointed by the last administration and so far as he was concerned each case would be considered on its own merits. He did not look on partisanship as a very serious thing in itself provided the official was efficient and gentlemanly.

A Fatal Shot

LITTLE ROCK, March 27.—News to day reached here from Carlisle, Ark., of the accidental shooting of Alderman Samuel Weller, of this city, while out hunting with a party of gentlemen from Little Rock. The party were driving through the woods when their horses took fright, throwing R. B. Courtney to the ground. His gun struck the wheel and was discharged, the contents entering Weller's head resulting in instant death.

Northern Mill

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 27.—The fight between Harry Gilmore and Danny Needham was fought this morning eight miles up the river in a barn. The fight began at 3.30 o'clock. From the start it was plain that while Gilmore was more scientific he lacked in the hard hitting qualities that finally gave Needham the fight. In the twentieth round Gilmore received a terrific thump in the neck and went down like a log. He managed again to face the victor but down he went again before a vicious left hander in the throat this time not to rise until too late and Needham had won the battle. It was a good fight, hard fought. The fight was awarded to Needham. Two hundred sports were present. The mill was conducted in a very orderly manner. The purse was four hundred dollars.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, March 27.—The stock market started out this morning with a burst of activity, which, however, soon died away and the usual dullness ensued with a decline from the high prices of the opening. The result of the day's operations, however, is to leave a majority of the list fractionally higher with a few marked gains. The close was quiet but firm, at generally close to the closing figures.

to be Opened

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The president's proclamation opening the Oklahoma lands to settlement on the 22d of April next was issued to day. The proclamation after setting forth the terms of the treaties of the cession of these lands by the Indians to the government and the acts of congress relative to the opening of them to homestead entries, describes the lands minutely and reserves two acres for government use. Then it formally declares that under these conditions these lands will be open to home stead entry at noon on April 22d next. All persons are warned that under the terms of the act of congress any person who shall occupy any of said lands before the time mentioned will be forever debarred from taking entry thereon and the officers of the United States are requested to strictly enforce this act.

Political Talk

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The republican senators held a well attended caucus to-day prior to the opening of the senate. The subject under consideration was with reference to putting all the senate clerks on the annual lists, provided it be made out of the contingent fund. There was a general sentiment in favor of doing this, but the question of legality being raised no conclusion was reached. It was inferred from what was said that the legal doubt would be sufficient to defeat the scheme although the illegality is not absolutely certain. Another subject under discussion was, "Shall Senator Cole's speech on the southern election outrages be answered." The conclusion while not formally expressed, was that there should be no further discussion on the subject at this session. After the adjournment of the senate the caucus resumed its sitting, and it was decided that the employment of clerks which would result in an overdraft upon the contingent fund was illegal, and accordingly the scheme to make all committee clerks annual clerks would fail. A resolution was adopted, however, to give Senator Vance of North Carolina a personal clerk. He has lost one eye and the sight of the other is failing and his republican colleagues deemed it only just that he should be spared the necessity of using his remaining eye to conduct his official correspondence. It was also finally decided not to continue the debate on the election outrages. The general opinion so far expressed is that the senate might reasonably expect to be able to adjourn Wednesday or Thursday of next week.

JOHN BRIGHT DEAD.

The Eminent English Statesman and Orator Dead.

After a Long Illness Cobden's Friend Passes Away.

Denver Democrats Squabble With the Citizen's Committee.

County Commissioner Barton Nominated by the Democrats.

John Bright Dead

LONDON, March 27.—John Bright died this morning at 8.30 o'clock. His end was peaceful and painless. He had been in a comatose condition since yesterday. All the family were present at the last. In the house of commons Hon. William H. Smith, the government leader with much emotion referred to the death of Bright and said he would postpone his remarks on Bright until Friday when Gladstone would be present. Morley thanked Smith for his consideration in regard to Gladstone. Bright represented the central division of Birmingham in the house.

The funeral will take place on Saturday. The interment will be in the Quaker's burying ground at Rochdale. The ceremonies will be as private as possible.

Barton for Mayor

DENVER, March 27.—The committee appointed yesterday by the democratic city convention to confer with the citizens' committee for the purpose of agreeing upon a fusion or citizens' ticket, met this afternoon. The meeting was a very turbulent one and no little wrangling was indulged in. The democrats demanded that the county commissioner be nominated mayor, while the citizens desired to compromise upon ex-Mayor Bates. The meeting adjourned at 5 o'clock without accomplishing anything, and reassembled at 7.30 o'clock. During the evening session the fight became so bitter that the democrats withdrew and held a separate convention, nominated E. B. Barton for the head of the ticket and then adjourned. It is understood that they will, for the remainder of the ticket, endorse the citizens' ticket, which, it is understood, will be nominated to morrow.

D. Talks Fight.

NEW YORK, March 27.—Jack Dempsey, talking to a reporter, said: "I'm going to attend to Johnnie Reagan's case on Thursday. I will go to the Police Gazette office and see if he can't be gotten to make a match for $500. If we can't agree on the amount of the stake I'll fight Reagan for $1000 a side before either of the California clubs if they will add a purse of $2500 or $3000 to the winner. That ought to suit my friend and there should be no trouble in getting the California or the Golden Gate Athletic Club to put up such a purse, as they would make plenty of money out of the show. I'm going to California soon, anyhow, and Reagan has been talking of going to 'Frisco for some time. Now, there's the chance of his life. To show how anxious I am to fight Reagan for any amount worth training for, I would be willing to meet him under Marquis of Queensbury rules, although the championship battles are always decided under London rules."

Fowler's Chart

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—A special to the Examiner from Fowler's Lower California, says: A discovery is reported here which is said to be filling the International Land company people with dread. It is said that by a mistake in the English map at the time of the treaty of Guadaloupe, Hidalgo, the boundary line between the United States and Mexico was placed sixty miles too far north and that the real boundary terminates on the Pacific ocean at a point some distance south of Ensenada. The treaty prescribes that the line shall cut the mouth of Colorado river, but the English maps extant at that time had the Gila river whose mouth is near Yuma incorrectly marked as the Colorado river. The mouth of the Colorado river is sixty miles south of Yuma at a point near Isabel and if the boundary line were to be drawn at that point it would place the Measedora, the town of Ensenada and all the country north of these places within the limit of the United States.

Old Fated Steamer.

NEW YORK, March 27.—There is little doubt now that the Conserva is the ill fated ship which struck the Virginia coast last week and was wrecked. Notwithstanding the reports to the contrary the Conserva was seaworthy. It is said by an officer who was engaged for the trip but who declined to go after finding out the condition of the vessel, that the boilers leaked as did also her hull. The Conserva had 27 persons on board. Her crew was entirely composed of southern half breeds and Malays. Captain John Henry Ankers, who has had a long and somewhat checkered career in West Indian waters, commanded the ship.

A W. I. Visitor.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—President Harrison received his first month's salary to day. It amounted to $7,333.33 and was delivered to him in the form of a treasury draft. It was for the month of March minus the first three days. Cleveland received the president's salary for that portion of the month.

LEBANON, Tenn., March 27.—Tim Turney and Mack Francis colored were hanged to day for the murder of Len Martin last August. Turney's neck was broken in falling and he died in a few minutes after horrible suffering.

Tanner Begins Work.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Corporal James Tanner to day took the prescribed oath of office and entered upon his duties as commissioner of pensions. His only appointment to day was that of George B. Squires of Brooklyn, N. Y., as his confidential secretary.

Arthur Kruschaski, a 14 year old lad of Chicago, the heir to a fortune of $80,000 has disappeared, and his father believes he has been abducted for the purpose of extorting a ransom.

Fountain Riotes

FOUNTAIN, March 27.—Mr. Charles Hodges of Battle Mountain, formerly of Fountain, and Miss Lizzie, who served the greater portion of the past year as teacher here, have located at Battle Mountain.

Mr. Moore and daughter of Missouri, who purchased a farm near town, have arrived and will make this their permanent home.

B. B. Kalanke of the Colorado Springs Lager company has indulged the spirit of enterprise and has erected an addition to his building and otherwise improved his property.

William Holmes of Cheyenne has been stopping here for a few days and very generously contributed several days work on grading Main street which has added greatly to the appearance of that thoroughfare.

Another new enterprise is the opening of the general merchandise store in the Dana building which is being refitted and will be occupied by V. W. Cormack, who has been in business near Denver. If the amount of business will warrant it Mr. Cormack will purchase lots and erect a building suitable for the trade which he expects to build up.

The glass blowers spent the greater part of last week here and fully instructed our citizens in their art which was appreciated by those who attended, many of whom for the first time witnessed the supposed difficulties of glass work. The wonderful pipe was awarded to C. J. Miller as the handsomest man and Miss Keating of the Brunswick captured the bird of paradise.

Through the unifying and zealous efforts of Rev. Hart, a society of Christian Endeavor has been organized with very flattering prospects. We hope that great good may result from the society, and fully expect such results since quite a number of the young people are already identified with kindred organizations. The people of Fountain are to be congratulated upon having secured the services of one so zealous and capable as Rev. Hart.

Rumor has it as an absolute certainty that a company has been formed composed of Denver, Pueblo and eastern capitalists for the purpose of developing the already acknowledged resources of the land lying to the west of Fountain. It is understood that the said company will build a railroad to the canyon at the base of the mountains for the purpose of working the immense quantities of fine building stone which are found in that locality. If the rumor be true, and we have good reason for believing it, Fountain may yet awake to the realization of the fact that she has everything in common with the prosperity of a progressive state. The most skeptical may easily imagine what the consummation of such a scheme means for the welfare of Fountain, and we should be ready and willing to give every assistance and information that will favor the chances of success. EMERY.

District Court

In the district court yesterday the case of the people vs. Thomas O'Brien for grand larceny came up. He withdrew his plea of not guilty entered on Monday and substituted a plea of guilty. He was remanded for sentence. The counsel for M. W. Warden, indicted for the killing of Philip Cook at Buena Vista on the 11th of March, 1888, appeared and entered a motion to quash the indictment on the ground that it does not show that C. F. Smith was the district attorney of Buena Vista county. Judge Campbell overruled the motion. Warden was then arraigned and plead not guilty. Trial of the case is set for Tuesday morning, April 2nd, at 9 o'clock.

The grand jury has returned bills against James Hayes and Joseph Fulton for grand larceny.

Benjamin Hock, grand juryman was taken ill and was excused yesterday. Mr. T. W. Hull was appointed to take his place.

Mr. P. J. Atkinson, of 211 North Nevada avenue, cordially invites any who are interested in our native ferns and wild flowers to call at his rooms to day from 9 a. m. to 10.30 p. m., or Saturday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock. In varied arrangement, including twenty large mats 24x30 inches, may be seen 300 species of this vicinity, South park, and beyond the Continental divide. Any from a distance who are in attendance at the college inauguration services are specially invited to take this opportunity of acquainting themselves with our flora.

A meeting was held in the city hall last night to nominate a candidate for alderman, on the citizens' ticket caused by the withdrawal of Alderman L. C. Skinner. Mr. S. M. Diltz was chosen chairman and Mr. C. S. Ritner secretary. The names of Mr. G. P. Vaux and Mr. A. Armentrout were proposed as candidates, but Mr. Armentrout withdrew in favor of Mr. Vaux. The nomination of Mr. Vaux was ratified and a committee was appointed to wait upon him and inform him of his nomination.

The president has issued a proclamation opening the Oklahoma territory to settlement on the 22nd of April. There will be a grand rush for the lands on that day and must inevitably be some serious contentions over the solution of claims.

The general impression is that the so called "Oklahoma boomers" are wild and bloodthirsty characters, but the report lately made by Lieutenant Carson shows that while there may be disreputable men among them, the majority are peaceable law abiding citizens in search of homes.

John Wanamaker says, "I want the mail bags kept open until the last possible minute, and when closed they must be dispatched to their destination in the least possible time, and when they have reach their destination there must be no delay in the delivery of the mail to the persons to whom it is addressed."

The nomination of Hon. Robert T. Lincoln for minister to England is scarcely what of a surprise. Of all the names associated with this, the most important of all the foreign appointments, his was the last talked of by the public. While Mr. Lincoln will enter upon his duties without any previous experience in diplomacy, there is every reason to suppose that he will acquit himself creditably.

O'Donovan Rossa and others of his class are claiming a share in the victory of Parnell over the Times. If Mr. Rossa will examine the report of the Parnell commission he will see that the distinguished Irish leader took especial pains to disclaim any connection or any sympathy with the dynamite party of which Rossa is the leader. Under the circumstances Rossa's exultation over the victory is ridiculous.

The president sent a number of important nominations to the senate yesterday, among them being those of Murat Halstead for minister to Germany and Allen Thorndyke Rice for minister to Russia. These nominations will be confirmed with general satisfaction. Both the gentlemen are well fitted to perform the official duties of the positions and both are equally well fitted for the social duties. Both are true Americans and the honor and dignity of the United States will never suffer at the hands of such representatives. While the nominations cannot fail to please a large majority of the people of all classes, they will be especially pleasing to the newspaper men of the country. Mr. Halstead is the editor of one of the leading dailies of the country, while Mr. Rice is the editor of a magazine noted on both sides of the Atlantic for the ability displayed in its pages.

The work which the prohibitionists are doing is reviewed as follows by the New York Tribune:

Though the liquor interests are doing their worst. In New Jersey the county option bill has been killed by the democratic legislature, which owes its existence to the foolish waste of votes by prohibitionists and temperance men, and the republicans are also attempting to efface the no license vote of the people in certain counties last year. Whether the courts will hold that this part of the bill is valid, or that the part which provides for township option is valid, I may seriously doubt, but the intention of the crime is manifest in both cases, and the practical result is in any case the same. Luck for temperance cause in New Jersey that the practical prohibition had been tried already under repressive legislation, and so even an effective measure would soon have been, so that prohibition of the liquor traffic in more than half the state is by legislative enactment even through the majority of the people in the counties desire it. On the other hand the township option would be of little practical benefit, while it is seriously doubted whether that part of the act may not be found invalid, leaving the people without any power whatever to remove the liquor traffic.

Such are the practical achievements of political prohibitionists in New Jersey, and the defeat of the prohibition amendment in New Hampshire must be attributed to the same cause. Few of them will deny that the material legislation of temperance reform has had an important influence. When the political prohibitionists deliberately set themselves to aid the democratic party and defeat the only party which has ever done anything for the cause of temperance, they were warmly urged to do so under that such a course would arouse a different most unfavorable to prohibition and would inevitably cause thousands of temperance voters against the method which the prohibitionists advocate. They have only themselves to thank if in New Hampshire and in any other state the current of public opinion now sets irresistibly against the measure they favor.

The practical tendency is to render progress through prohibition every where temporarily more difficult, and in most states impossible. [illegible] have instructed the [illegible] many years through their conduct. Meanwhile practical temperance men will [illegible] with [illegible] effective measures, as far as effective measures [illegible] that can now be secured. Against these the political prohibitionists protest with all their might, but that fact will help such measures materially. The prohibitionists have a fair trial for some years, [illegible] in most of the states. Before an appeal can again be made to public opinion in favor of prohibition with any chance of success it will be the judgment of the situation is over at, and every temperance lover can determine for himself whether [illegible]

[illegible] Chinese Restriction

[illegible] the United States for [illegible] 1884. Before [illegible] collector of the [illegible] San Francisco [illegible] reported by [illegible] the Chinese restriction act of May 6, 1882, as amended July 5, 1884. He produced before United States circuit court [illegible] presented a certificate to the collector [illegible] the right to land there on permission was refused by the collector on the ground that under the provisions of the act commonly known as the Scott exclusion act of October 1, 1888, the certificate presented by the applicant had been declared void and of no effect. He sued out a writ of habeas corpus in the United States circuit court, and after hearing the court ordered the applicant remanded to the custody from which he had been taken. The captain of the ship refused to take him back to the United States. From that judgment of remand he has appealed to this court.

The counsel for the appellant contend that the question involved in this case is whether that portion of the act of October 1, 1888, declaring laborers' certificates void and of no effect, is valid and constitutional. As will be seen they say this proposition involves a question of both national and international importance.

A Star [illegible]

To the Editor of The Gazette:

The fact that we were appointed on one of the ward committees by the citizens' meeting held Monday evening last, may lead to a misunderstanding of our attitude towards the candidacy of Mr. George R. Buckman for the city treasurership. We desire now to state publicly that Mr. Buckman's acceptance of a nomination that came to him wholly unsought was gained largely through our solicitation. We therefore stand pledged to him and will heartily support him, believing him to be in every way entitled to the support of the community, and this we say without any personal hostility to Mr. Hoagland whom we know and esteem.
